A Durable Power of Attorney is a document authorizing a person to act as the Attorney in Fact of the Principal. A Durable Power of Attorney does not end if the Principal becomes unable to make their own decisions. A Durable Power of Attorney remains in effect even if the Principal becomes disabled or incapacitated.

A Durable Power of Attorney is for financial or other decisions. Heath care decisions are not authorized in a Durable Power of Attorney. There is a different document for health care decisions called a Health Care Directive.

The Durable Power of Attorney may 1) take effect upon the signature of the Principal and remain effective if the Principal becomes disabled or incapacitated; or 2) take effect only when the Principal becomes disabled or incapacitated.

A Durable Power of Attorney does not require a court order. The Principal may revoke the Durable Power of Attorney at any time, as long as they are legally competent. The revocation must be in writing.

A Durable Power of Attorney is not a guardianship and is not a conservatorship. Guardianships and conservatorships are court processes where a court appoints a guardian, conservator, or both for an adult, if legal requirements are met.
