XIII. Resolution of Disputes. If a dispute arises concerning the provisions of this Agreement or the performance of any of the parties mentioned, the parties hereby agree to settle the dispute by equally paying for one of the following: (choose one)

☐ - Binding Arbitration as regulated under the laws in the State where the Services are being performed. The parties agree to accept the final decision made by the Arbitrator.
☐ - Non-Binding Arbitration as regulated under the laws in the State where the Services are being performed. The parties have the right to not accept the decision of the arbitrator; in such event, the dispute shall be solved by litigation.
\Box - Mediation as regulated under the laws in the State where the Services are being performed. The parties agree to enter into negotiations, in good faith, and through a neutral mediator in an attempted to resolve the dispute. If a resolution to the dispute cannot be made by mediation, the parties agree to enter into \Box binding arbitration \Box litigation .
If the parties have a dispute, regardless of which of the above are checked, the Contractor may, before, during, or after any arbitration or mediation, take any steps required by law to preserve or secure any lien on the property to enforce payment of monies due. Specifically, the Contractor may record one or more lien certificates in the appropriate Registry of Deeds and may commence legal action to enforce and preserve any lien as provided under State law.
Completion, as determined under this Section, may be changed if the Services cannot begin or end due to circumstances beyond the control of the Contractor, including but not limited to, lack of readiness of the Location, unavailability of building materials, or any other issues considered outside the control of the parties in this Agreement.
XIV. Termination. During the course of this Agreement: (choose one)
☐ - No Rights to Terminate : No party has the right to terminate this Agreement unless mutually agreed upon in writing by Contractor and Subcontractor.
☐ - Contractor ONLY Has the Option to Terminate: Contractor may, at any time and for any reason, terminate Subcontractor's Services hereunder at the Contractor's convenience with at least business day(s) notice. In the event

- XVI. Change Orders. Any alteration or deviation from the Services mentioned or any other contractual specifications that result in a revision of this Agreement shall be executed and attached to this Agreement as a change order ("Change Order").
- XVII. Entire Agreement. This Agreement represents the entire agreement between the Contractor and Subcontractor. This Agreement supersedes any prior written or oral representations. Subcontractor and its subcontractors, suppliers and/or materialmen are bound to the Contractor by the prime contract and any contract documents incorporated therein to the same extent as Contractor is bound to the Client insofar as they related in any way, directly or indirectly, to the Services provided and covered in this Agreement.
- XVIII. Time. Time is of the essence of this Agreement. Subcontractor shall provide the Contractor with scheduling information in a form acceptable to the Contractor and shall conform to the Contractor's progress schedules, including any changes made by the Contractor in the scheduling of Services. Subcontractor shall coordinate its Services with that of all other contractors, subcontractors, suppliers and/or materialmen so as not to delay or damage their performance.
- XIX. Delays. Should the Subcontractor delay the Contractor, or any other contractors, subcontractors, suppliers and/or materialmen on the entire project, Subcontractor will indemnify the Contractor and hold Contractor harmless for any damages, claims, demands, liens, stop notices, lawsuits, attorneys' fees, and other costs or liabilities imposed on the Contractor connected with said delay. Among other remedies for Subcontractor's delay, the Contractor may supplement the Subcontractor's work and deduct associated costs at Contractor's election.

XX. Inspection of Services. Subcontractor shall make the Services accessible at all reasonable times for inspection by the Contractor. Subcontractor shall, at the first opportunity, inspect all material and equipment delivered to the job site by others to be used or incorporated in the Subcontractor's Services and give prompt notice of any defect therein. Subcontractor assumes full responsibility to protect the work done hereunder until final acceptance by the Contractor or any authorized third (3rd) party.

XXI. Labor Relations. Subcontractor shall maintain labor policies in conformity with the directions of the Contractor and under State laws.

XXII. Indemnification. To the fullest extent permitted by law, Subcontractor shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless the Client and Contractor along with any of their agents, employees, or individuals associated with their organization from claims, demands, causes of actions and liabilities of any kind and nature whatsoever arising out of or in connection with the Subcontractor's Services or operations performed under this Agreement and causes or alleged to be caused, in whole or in part, by any act or omission of the Subcontractor or anyone employed directly or indirectly by Subcontractor or on Subcontractor's account related to Subcontractor's Services hereunder. This indemnification shall extend to claims occurring after this Agreement is terminated as well as while it is in force. The indemnity shall apply regardless of any passively negligent act or omission of the Client or Contractor, or their agents or employees, but Subcontractor shall not be obligated to indemnify any party for claims arising from the active negligence, sole negligence, or willful misconduct of Client or Contractor or their agents or employees or arising solely by the designs provided by such parties. To the extent that State law limits the defense or indemnity obligations of the Subcontractor either to Contractor or Client, the intent hereunder is to provide the maximum defense and indemnity obligations allowed by the Subcontractor under the law. The indemnity set forth in this Section shall not be limited by any insurance requirement or any other provision of this Agreement.

XXIII. Warranty. Subcontractor warrants to Client and Contractor that any and all materials and equipment furnished shall be new unless otherwise specified and that all Services provided under this Agreement will be performed, at a minimum, in accordance with industry standards. All work not conforming to these requirements, including substitutions not properly approved and authorized, may be considered defective. The warranty provided in this Section shall be in addition to and not in limitation of any other warranty or remedy required by law or by the Prime Contract.

XXIV. Required Licenses. All parties of this Agreement, including but not limited to, Contractor, Subcontractor, other sub-contractors, and all parties' direct or indirect employees and agents shall be licensed in accordance with respective State laws where the individual is performing their trade or service. All individuals under this agreement shall be regulated by their respective licensing board which has jurisdiction to investigate complaints made by any third (3rd) parties.

- XXV. Confidentiality. For the purposes of this Agreement, "Confidential Information" shall mean any information or material that is proprietary to a party or designated as confidential by such party ("Disclosing Party") and received by another party ("Receiving Party") as a result of this Agreement. Confidential Information may be considered any information that is conceived, originated, discovered or developed in whole or in part by the Subcontractor in accordance with providing their Services. Confidential Information does not include (1) information that is or becomes publicly known without restriction and without breach of this Agreement or that is employed by the trade at or after the time the Receiving Party first learns of such information; (2) generic information or knowledge which the Receiving Party would have learned in the course of similar employment or work elsewhere in the trade; (3) information the Receiving Party lawfully receives from a third (3rd) party without restriction of disclosure and without breach of a nondisclosure obligation; (4) information the Receiving Party rightfully knew prior to receiving such information from the Disclosing Party to the extent such knowledge was not subject to restrictions of further disclosure; or (5) information the Receiving Party develops independent of any information originating from the Disclosing Party.
 - A.) Prime Confidential Information. The following shall constitute Confidential Information of the Contractor and should not be disclosed to third (3rd) parties: the deliverables, discoveries, ideas, concepts, software [in various stages of development], designs, drawings, specifications, techniques, models, data, source code, source files, object code, documentation, diagrams, flow charts, research, development, processes, procedures, "know-how", marketing techniques and materials, marketing and development plans, customer names and other information related to customers, price lists, pricing policies and financial information, this Agreement and the existence of this Agreement, the relationship between the Contractor and Subcontractor, and any details of the Service under this Agreement. Subcontractor agrees not to use or reference the Contractor and/or their names, likenesses, or logos ("Identity"). Subcontractor will not use or reference Contractor or their Identity, directly or indirectly, in conjunction with any other third (3rd) parties.
 - B.) Non-Disclosure. The parties hereby agree that during the term hereof, and at all times thereafter, and except as specifically permitted herein or in a separate writing signed by the Disclosing Party, the Receiving Party shall not use, commercialize or disclose Confidential Information to any person or entity. Upon termination, or at any time upon the request of the Disclosing Party, the Receiving Party shall return to the Disclosing Party all Confidential Information, including all notes, data, reference materials, sketches, drawings, memorandums, documentation and records which in any way incorporate Confidential Information.
 - C.) Right to Disclose. With respect to any information, knowledge, or data disclosed to the Contractor by the Subcontractor, the Subcontractor warrants that the Subcontractor has full and unrestricted right to disclose the same without incurring legal liability to others, and that the Contractor shall have the full and unrestricted rights to use and publish the same as it may see fit. Any restrictions on Contractor's use of information, knowledge, or data disclosed by Subcontractor must be made known to Contractor.

XXVI. Notices. All notices under this Agreement shall be in writing and sent to the address of the recipient specified herein. Any such notice may be delivered by hand, by overnight courier, certified mail with return receipt, or first class pre-paid letter, and will be deemed to have been received (1) if delivered by hand – at the time of delivery; (2) if delivered by overnight courier – 24 hours after the date of delivery to courier with evidence from the courier; (3) if delivered by certified mail with return receipt – the date as verified on the return receipt; (4) if delivered by first class mail – three (3) business days after the date of mailing.

XXVII. Injunctive Relief. Subcontractor acknowledges it would be difficult to fully compensate the Client and/or Contractor for damages resulting from any breach of this Agreement. Accordingly, in the event of any breach of this Agreement, the Client and/or Contractor shall be entitled to temporary and/or permanent injunctive relief to enforce such provisions.

XXVIII. Severability. If any term, covenant, condition, or provision of this Agreement is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, void, or unenforceable, the remainder of the provisions shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no way be affected, impaired, or invalidated.

XXIX. Independent Contractor. No term, covenant, condition, or provision of this Agreement shall be considered to create an employer and employee relationship, a master-servant relationship, or a principal and agent relationship between Subcontractor and/or any of the Subcontractor's employees and the Contractor or Client. All parties to this Agreement attest that the relationship between the Contractor and Subcontractor shall be recognized as the Subcontractor acting as an independent contractor.

XXX. Force Majeure. Neither party shall be liable for any failure to perform under this Agreement when such failure is due to causes beyond that party's reasonable control, including, but not limited to, acts of State or governmental authorities, acts of terrorism, natural catastrophe, fire, storm, flood, earthquakes, accident, and prolonged shortage of energy. In the event of such delay, any date stated herein shall be extended by a period of time necessary by both Contractor and Subcontractor. If the delay remains in effect for a period more than thirty (30) days, Contractor has the right to terminate this Agreement upon written notice to the Subcontractor.

XXXI. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed under the laws in the State of Mississippi.

XXXII. Attachments. The Contractor may attach any plans, schematics, drawings, details, or other information to assist the Subcontractor with the aforementioned Services. Any attachment made shall be made part of this entire Agreement.

XXXIII. Additional Provisions.
