PARENTING PLAN

This parenting plan is: (Choose one)

- Agreed upon     Proposed by _____  Developed by Court
(parent's name)

This parenting plan is: (Choose one)

- Temporary: The completed paragraphs apply until the case is concluded. If you are requesting a temporary order on parenting issues, you should include as many of these parenting plan topics as you will need to carry your family through until all parenting issues are resolved.
- Final: All completed paragraphs shall be incorporated in the Court's final order.
- Changing a prior final Parenting Plan or a prior permanent order on parental rights and responsibilities.

The parental rights and responsibilities statute, RSA 461-A, requires any party in a divorce, legal separation, or parenting (formerly known as "custody") case to file a parenting plan, whether s/he is seeking an order establishing parental rights and responsibilities or an order modifying such rights and responsibilities. The statute also requires that the parenting plan include a detailed parenting schedule for each child, specifying the periods when each parent has residential responsibility or non-residential parenting time.

As you complete the Parenting Plan, please bear in mind this state's policy (below) as set forth in RSA 461-A:2. This policy will guide the court in making decisions affecting your parental rights and responsibilities.

Because children do best when both parents have a stable and meaningful involvement in their lives, it is the policy of this state, unless it is clearly shown that in a particular case it is detrimental to a child, to:

- (a) Support frequent and continuing contact between each child and both parents.
- (b) Encourage parents to share in the rights and responsibilities of raising their children after the parents have separated or divorced.
- (c) Encourage parents to develop their own parenting plan with the assistance of legal and mediation professionals, unless there is evidence of domestic violence, or child abuse/neglect.
- (d) Grant parents and courts the widest discretion in developing a parenting plan.
- (e) Consider both the best interests of the child in light of the factors listed in RSA 461-A:6 and the safety of the parties in developing a parenting plan.

However, pursuant to RSA 461-A:6, I-a, if the court concludes that frequent and continuing contact between each child and both parents is not in the best interest of the child, the court shall make findings supporting its order.

If the parenting plan includes a parent's residence, the parent shall be responsible for promptly notifying the court and the other parent of any change in residence.
