You have finished answering the questions. The following pages are the forms that you will be printing and then filing with the court. Please look over them to make sure the information is correct before you print them out. If you have changes, you must make them to the questions above. You may also save a copy of this packet if you need to obtain more information before answering the questions.

Please give the Consent to Change of Name of Minor (page 8 of this packet) to the minor's other parent or guardian (non-petitioning party) to fill out and sign and return to you. You must file this with the Court.

PLEASE NOTE: The court will set a hearing date when you file your Petition. Make sure this date is filled in on the Notice of Petition for Change of Name. You will need to take this Notice to the person who handles legal notices in your local newspaper. This Notice must appear once a week for three weeks. The last publication must be at least 30 days before the hearing. The newspaper will then send a proof of publication notice to you, which you will attach to the Notice of Filing Proof of Publication and then file these forms with the court.
