

DEBT RELEASE LETTER – FINAL PAYMENT

From

To

To Whom This May Concern,

In this envelope, you will find my last and final payment $_____ for the account of _____ (Account Number: _____). Therefore, any statements made to credit agencies or other credit reporting bureaus must be made aware that this debt has been paid. Furthermore, you shall refrain from making any more claims in relation to this debt.

As this debt is now cleared I do not expect to hear from you except to acknowledge that this account has been paid-in-full. Any additional communication would be considered harassment which would be reported immediately to the State Attorney General's office or the Federal Trade Commission.

Please confirm this release and afterward delete any information about this account from your records.

Sincerely,

