

SELLER'S PROPERTY DISCLOSURE

In Florida a seller of residential property is obligated to disclose to a buyer all facts known to a seller that materially and adversely affect the value of the Property being sold which are not readily observable by a buyer. This Disclosure is designed to assist a seller in complying with the disclosure requirements under Florida law and to assist a buyer in evaluating the Property described below ("the Property"). All parties, including the listing real estate Broker(s) and cooperating Broker(s), may wish to refer to this information when they evaluate, market or present the Property to prospective buyers.

NOTICE TO BUYER

This Disclosure is not a warranty by SELLER or a representation of any kind by any REALTOR to this transaction and is not considered a substitute for inspections or warranties a buyer may wish to obtain. This Disclosure is based only upon SELLER's knowledge of the Property's condition as of the date signed by SELLER.
