XVIII. GROUNDS FOR LEGAL SEPARATION. Irreconcilable differences, the irretrievable breakdown of the marriage, and the incompatibility of temperament have led to this separation with the possibility of reconciliation.

XIX. OTHER PROPERTY PROVISIONS. All income, earnings, assets, or other property acquired by either Spouse after the date of this Agreement shall be the separate property of the Spouse acquiring them, and each Spouse disclaims and waives all rights and interest in each asset acquired by the other after that date.

XX. ASSETS DISCLOSURE. Each Spouse warrants to the other that they do not have any knowledge of any assets other than those disclosed in accordance with Section VII. If the Spouses have waived their rights to financial disclosures, then this Section shall not apply to this Agreement. If either Spouse has any knowledge of any asset other than those disclosed in accordance with Section VII, that warrantor shall transfer or pay to the warrantee, at the warrantee's election, one of the following:

- a.) If the asset is reasonably susceptible to division, a portion of the asset equal to the warrantee's interest in it;
- b.) The fair market value of the warrantee's interest in the asset on the effective date of this Agreement, plus interest at the maximum rate under State law or ten percent (10%) per annum, whichever is greater, from the effective date to the date of payment; or
- c.) The fair market value of the warrantee's interest in the asset on the date on which the warrantee discovers the existence of the asset, plus interest at the maximum rate under State law or ten percent (10%) per annum, whichever is greater, from the discovery date to the date of payment.

This provision shall not be deemed to impair the availability, in a court of competent jurisdiction, of any other remedy arising from the nondisclosure of assets.

XXI. LIABILITIES DISCLOSURE. Each Spouse warrants to the other that he or she has not incurred nor shall incur, on or before the effective date of this Agreement, any liability not disclosed and listed in this Agreement for which the other is or may become personally liable or that could be enforced at any time against an asset held or to be received under this Agreement by the other Spouse.

If either Spouse has incurred or does incur, on or before the effective date of this Agreement, any liability not disclosed and listed in this Agreement for which the other is or may become personally liable or that could be enforced at any time against an asset held or to be received under this Agreement by the other Spouse, that warrantor shall fully indemnify the other with respect to the obligation, including, but not limited to, any and all liability on the obligation, attorney fees, and related costs. This provision shall not be deemed to impair the availability, in a court of competent jurisdiction, of any other remedy arising from the nondisclosure of such liabilities.

XXII. UNDISCLOSED GIFTS. Either when this Agreement is signed or when the divorce petition is first filed, whichever occurs earliest, no gift shall be made without the other Spouse's consent. If such gift-giving does occur without the other Spouse's consent, that warrantor shall pay to the warrantee a sum equal to half of the fair market value of the asset transferred, with the fair market value to be determined, at the warrantee's election, as of either (a) the effective date of this Agreement or (b) the date on which the warrantee discovers the transfer, less any appreciation in the asset's value attributable solely to acts of the transferee(s) and successor(s). The warrantor shall further pay to the warrantee interest at the maximum rate under State law or ten percent (10%) per annum, whichever is greater, from the date elected for determination of the fair market value of the asset to the date of payment.

XXIII. FUTURE LIABILITIES. Each Spouse warrants to the other that they shall not incur, after the effective date of this Agreement, any liability for which the other shall be or may become personally liable or that could be enforced against an asset held by the other Spouse.

If either Spouse incurs, after the effective date of this Agreement, any liability for which the other shall be or may become personally liable or that could be enforced against an asset held by the other Spouse, that warrantor shall indemnify the other for any liability on the obligation, attorney fees, and related costs.

XXIV. RELEASE OF LIABILITIES AND CLAIMS. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, each Spouse hereby releases the other from all interspousal obligations, whether incurred before or after the effective date, and all claims to the property of the other. This release extends to all claims based on rights that have accrued before the marriage, including, but not limited to, property and support claims. The Couple has considered such claims in this Agreement.

XXV. STATUS OF TEMPORARY ORDERS. All temporary orders previously rendered by the court in the pending dissolution action of the Couple shall be deemed fully satisfied as to those acts whose performance was required on or before the effective date of this Agreement and shall be deemed superseded by this Agreement as to those acts whose performance was not required.

XXVI. WAIVER OF RIGHTS ON DEATH OF OTHER SPOUSE. Except for any Child Support statements made in Attachment A, each Spouse hereby waives the right to receive any property or rights whatsoever on the death of the other, unless such right is created or affirmed by the other under a will or other written document executed after the effective date of this Agreement. Each Spouse believes that he or she has received a fair and reasonable disclosure of the property and financial obligations of the other Spouse.

Except for rights listed in this Agreement, the rights waived include, but are not limited to, rights to any of the following:

- a.) Property that would pass from the decedent by intestate succession;
- b.) Property that would pass from the decedent by testamentary disposition;
- c.) A probate homestead;
- d.) The setting aside of exempt property;
- e.) A family allowance;

- f.) The setting aside of an estate;
- g.) An election to take property against the decedent's will;
- h.) The statutory share of an omitted Spouse;
- i.) An appointment as executor or administrator of the decedent's estate, except as the nominee of a third Spouse legally entitled to make such a nomination;
- j.) Property that would pass from the decedent by non-probate transfer, such as the survivorship interest under a joint tenancy, a Totten trust account, or a payable-on-death account; and
- k.) Proceeds as a beneficiary of any type of insurance policy.

XXVII. RECONCILIATION. If the Couple reconciles, this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full effect unless and until it is modified or revoked in writing and signed by the Couple.

XXVIII. MODIFICATION BY SUBSEQUENT AGREEMENT. This Agreement may be modified by subsequent agreement of the Couple only by an instrument in writing signed by both of them, an oral agreement to the extent that the Couple executes it, or an in-court oral agreement made into an order by a court of competent jurisdiction.

XXIX. NOTICE OF BANKRUPTCY FILING. If either Spouse decides to claim any rights under the bankruptcy laws, that Spouse must notify the other of this intention in writing at least ten (10) days before filing the petition. Such notice must include, but not necessarily be limited to, the name, address, and telephone number of the attorney, if any, representing the Spouse in that proceeding and the court in which the petition shall be filed.

XXX. ATTORNEY FEES TO ENFORCE OR MODIFY AGREEMENT. Except as to reserved issues, the prevailing Spouse in any action or proceeding to enforce or modify any provision of this Agreement, or any corresponding provision of a subsequent judgment into which the provision is merged, shall be awarded reasonable attorney fees and costs for the Spouse to be deemed the prevailing Spouse for purposes of this provision, he or she must, at least ten (10) days before the filing of any motion, provide written notice to the other Spouse specifying the alleged breach or default, if capable of being cured, or the modification requested. The other Spouse must then be allowed to avoid implementation of this provision by curing the breach or default specified or executing an agreement for the modification requested during the ten (10) day period.

XXXI. COOPERATION IN IMPLEMENTATION. On demand of the other Spouse and without undue delay or expense, each Spouse shall execute, acknowledge, or deliver any instrument, furnish any information, or perform any other acts reasonably necessary to carry out the provisions of this Agreement. If a Spouse fails to execute any document as required by this provision, the court may appoint the court clerk or his or her authorized designee to execute the document on that Spouse's behalf.

XXXII. EFFECTIVE DATE. The effective date of this Agreement shall be the date of its execution by the second of the Couple to do so.

XXXIII. COURT ACTION. If a judgment of dissolution of marriage is obtained by either Spouse, the original of this Agreement shall be attached to the judgment. The court shall be requested to do the following:

- a.) Approve the entire Agreement as fair and equitable;
- b.) Order the Couple to comply with all of its executory provisions;
- c.) Merge the court's provisions relating to all other matters, including child custody, visitation rights, child support, future acts with respect to property division, attorney fees and costs, and income tax, and only those provisions, into the judgment; and
- d.) Incorporate the remainder of the Agreement in the judgment for the sole purpose of identification.

XXXIV. ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. Each Spouse acknowledges that he or she respectively (1) is fully informed as to the facts relating to the subject matter of this Agreement and as to the rights and liabilities of the Couple; (2) enters into this Agreement voluntarily, free from fraud, undue influence, coercion, or duress of any kind; (3) is representing themselves in an "in pro per" status and is therefore not represented by legal counsel; (4) prior to executing this Agreement, either Spouse may have this Agreement reviewed by an attorney; and (5) has read, considered, and understands each provision of this Agreement.

XXXV. SEVERABILITY. If any term, covenant, condition, or provision of this Agreement is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, void, or unenforceable, the remainder of the provisions shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no way be affected, impaired, or invalidated.
